

Jerry and Onslow Play Hide and Seek: Miss Daisy Wiggles

Peek-a-boo, want to come and play with me? My name is Onslow. Whats your name? Could it be Jerry? Follow me in this book and well play Hide and Seek. Nothing will encourage a new reader more than to read a book about themselves. The reader of the book will play hide and seek with Onslow and Daisy. Two versions of the Hide and Seek books are currently in production. One is focused on Daisy as the readers partner. The other focuses more on Onslow as the readers partner. Dont see the name youre looking for? Just contact the Author through the Miss Daisy Wiggles website. Illustrated in full color with a 6 x 9 trim and a classic beginning reader layout, the Miss Daisy Wiggles Collection of books is written for preschoolers through grade level one. Using lovable characters and a vocabulary vetted by early-learning specialists makes Miss Daisy Wiggles books perfect for beginning readers. They incorporate the concepts of rhyme, rhythm, and repetition. Most of the personalities in these books are based on real pets. Like Dolly Girl, the dog who thought she was a cat. Dolly was so cat-like in personality that she actually responded when we yelled Here Kitty Kitty. Other characters like Bob the Frog are loosely based on real people. Bob has advice for everyone and is perfectly happy sitting on his lily pad catching flies.
